Who are the 401(k) Industry's Most Influential?

Influence can flow from the financial resources to buy a competitor or create and market a new product. It can stem from a new idea that is -- or will be -- widely adopted, or from authoring legislation that changes the industry. It can also be as simple as holding the respect of one's peers so one's ideas can be widely spread and acted upon.

Nominations for the 2022 401kWire Most Influential People list have closed. We will publish features of the 100 Most Influential people until January 10, 2023.
