The Wagner Law Group Opens New York Office

Buffalo, NY, July 18, 2011 – Marcia Wagner, Managing Director of The Wagner Law Group, one of the largest boutique firms in ERISA, employee benefits, executive compensation and estate planning law, announces that the firm has opened a New York office. “This office is a perfect complement to our offices in Massachusetts and Florida,” says Ms. Wagner, who founded the firm in 1996 in Boston. “Although we have many corporate clients located throughout the U.S. and the world, their executives, many of whom live in New York, now have access to our attorneys in that State.”

The Wagner Law Group, which opened a Florida office in April, added an estate planning practice to serve corporate clients’ executives, many of whom intend to retire from the Northeast to Florida. “With our brutal winters, more clients are inquiring about estate planning and, specifically, the tax consequences of retiring in Florida, which is very attractive not only for its weather, but for its tax system, as well,” says Ms. Wagner, who has a second residence in Florida.

The New York office is headed by Stephen M. Newman, Esq., who focuses on tax, estate and asset protection planning. Mr. Newman is former chair of the New York State Bar Association Trust and Estate Law Section. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel and is listed in Best Lawyers of America. Mr. Newman will split his time between the New York and Florida offices. Joining him is Geri A. Zamber, formerly of the Nixon Peabody law firm, who has over 25 years of experience as a paralegal in tax planning, corporate matters and employee benefits. Eugene F. Pollingue, Esq., an attorney who focuses on tax issues in estate planning, is resident in the Florida office.

The Wagner Law Group, has 19 attorneys, 6 of whom are AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell as having very high to preeminent legal abilities and ethical standards. The Firm has clients in more than 30 states and several foreign countries. The New York office, which is one of a number of expansions planned by Ms. Wagner during the next decade, is located at 333 International Drive, Suite B-4, Williamsville, New York 14221. The telephone number is: (716) 650-5987.
