April 2, 2025

We are delighted to welcome Camille Castro to our firm. The extensive experience that she brings with her from the PBGC will be of tremendous value to our firm in general, and specifically to our robust PBGC practice.

With over a decade of experience in pension and employee benefits law, Camille brings a wealth of experience in matters related to ERISA and pension plans. In her role at the PBGC's Office of the Advocate, Camille served as a liaison between participants, plan sponsors and the PBGC. She assisted plan sponsors in resolving disputes with the agency involving distress terminations, post-termination negotiations, PBGC premiums, standard terminations, and other issues arising under Title IV of ERISA. She also advised participants with benefit entitlement claims, questions about PBGC's policies and procedures, and other complex benefits administration questions. Camille created the PBGC Office of the Advocate's Pension Plan Tracing Service, designed to assist participants with historical pension plan research and related benefit claims. She also served as technical point of contact for a study commissioned by the Advocate on pension plan de-risking.
