distinguished list reflects her decades-long reputation as one of the country's foremost authorities in employee benefits, health and welfare plans, and ERISA compliance. Through this honor, her peers in the Tampa Bay legal community have recognized her for outstanding professional achievement, deep subject-matter expertise, and unwavering commitment to client service.

Ms. Watson has practiced employee benefits law for more than 50 years and is nationally known for her work with health plans, welfare benefit arrangements, and compliance matters involving ERISA, HIPAA, COBRA, and the Affordable Care Act. Within the employee benefits field, her extensive experience goes beyond ERISA and impacts other areas of law. She is skilled in determining how employee benefits affect family law and labor law, including the American Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Family and Medical Leave Act.

Ms. Watson is a Charter Fellow of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, an invitation-only organization of nationally recognized employee benefits lawyers, and has been named annually to prestigious Chambers USA, Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers® lists, which highlight outstanding lawyers based on a rigorous selection process. She is an active member and a past chair of the American Bar Association Tax Section's Employee Benefits Committee, the ABA's Joint Committee on Employee Benefits (JCEB), the ABA Health Law Section's Employee Benefits Interest Group, as well as the Florida West Coast Employee Benefits Council and the Tampa Bay Pension Council. The recognition by Tampa Magazine underscores Ms. Watson's outstanding abilities and her continued leadership in her area of practice.
